PROCLAMATION.

Washington, Nov. 23, 1861.
Whilst the present year winesses as phase of our national affairs startling to the world, and a crisis in our country as deplorable as it is unparalleled, which has already paralyzed one section and prostrated sister cities, the citizens of Washington should especially be not unmindful of the failure of these causes to produce like effects in the metropolis of the Union, or from whence this dispensation sprang, and, in humble acknowledgment, render thanks that, as this same year approaches its close, our city is peculiarly blessed in abundant employment for all its isbor, unusual mercantile prosperity, and all that ordinarily renders a community contented and happy.

For these reasons, and in compliance with the following concurrent resolution of the City Councils, I request my fellow-citizens, or abstantiform secular employment, and, assembling in their respective places of worship on Thuraday, the 28th instant, to unite in graterul expressions to Almighty God.

RICHARD WALLACH, Mayor.

Concurrent Resolution setting apart a Day for Public Thanksgiving and Prayer.

Resolved by the Board of Aldermen and Board of Common Council of the City of Washington, That the Mayor be requested to issue his proc-lamation recommending the people of this city to set apart and observe Thursday, the 28th instant, as a day of Public Thanksgiving and Prayer, by the usual religious ceremonies in their various churches and places of worship. various churches and places of worship.

On Thursday morning last, information was brought to some citizens of Alexandria that a woman was lying drowned on the shore of Hunting Creek, just above the bridge. On going to the place, she was found drawn up out of the water. Her bonnet and shawl had been previously found a little way from the Creek; also her hoops. There were no marks of violence upon her person, and there was every indication that she had committed suicide. There being no authorities under whom a formal inquest could be held, the gentlemen who went to the spot, after getting all the information that was possible, concluded that nothing could be done but to have her decently buried, and directions were given accordingly.

The neighbors, and all who saw her, were of opinion that she was not a resident of the neighborhood, but was probably a follower of one of the camps. Her features indicated that she was a German.

was a German.

An empty bottle, marked "laudanum," was found either on her person or near by her. She was quite decently and confortably clad. Her bonnet and shawl will be carried to the Mayor's Office, where they may furnish the means of identifying her. There was no mark on her clothing, as far as it was examined.

Sworn In.

The following is the coath taken by the new Mayor of Alexandria, before Justice Donn, on Thursday:

"I solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the laws made in pursuance thereof, as the supreme law of the land, any thing in the Constitution and laws of the State of Virginia, or in the Ordinances of the Convention which assembled at Richmond on the 13th of February, 1861, to the contrary notwithstanding; and that I will uphold and defend the Government of Virginia as vindicated and restored by the Convention which assembled at Wheeling on the 11th day of June, 1861.

which assembled to of June, 1861.

"And I further swear that I will faithfully execute the office of Mayor of this city to the best of my ability, so help me God."

Allen's Liniment.

Allen's Liniment,
Mr. John Allen, of Woonsocket, R. I., is about to establish an agency in this city for the sale of Allen's newly discovered, infallible oil compound liniment. This remedy was very extensively used in the First Rhode Island regiment, while encamped at Camp Sprague, and in other regiments in and around Washingt n, and it has met with great success. This liniment is used in the East and West, and never fails to give relief in all cases for which it is intended. We predict a heavy sale, when the agency is established here, which will be in a very few days.

Munder,—We are called upon to record the mei-achely dea h of Mr. Ninian Easton, by the hands of his wife, on the adpt of the 13th inst., near Laytensville, in this county. Mr. and Mrs. Easton, each about fifty-five years of age, had been for some time out of employment, and being very poor, had become impressed with the conviction that they would ultimately surve to death. They were both somewhat addicted to drinking, and having obtained a jug of whisky, were both druking till a late hour on Wednesday night. It appears, from her own statement, that, towards day, they got into a quarrel, when she precured an axe, and knocked her husband down by a blow on the head. She then get his razar, and cut his threat with II—carefully catching the blood in a basin, and hid it. After putting the razor in its proper place, she ag in struck him with the edge of the axe, nearly severing his head from his bady. She then put him in bed, covered him up, and endeavered to make her escape. She was found, after much searching, on Saturday morning, concealed in a hay rick, about had a mile from the louse, where she had been from the time she committed the murder. She expresses great sorrow for committing so nordid an act, and says "she had the devil in She expresses great sorrow for committing so forrid an act, and says "she had the devil in her, which induced her to commit it, and that the would not do it again for four hundred dol-ars." The speech of the American Minister, Mr Adams, at the Lord Mayor's banquet, has attracted considerable attention. It was silent in relation to the war in the United States, but very Pacific toward England. The Daily News says it was frank, mark sensible, and seasonable, and must be comed by England at large, especial as a small but active faction is doing its utmost to misrepresent American diplomacy, and create ill feeling.

The Morning Post soys the speech was mark d by the most friendly statements respecting the good feelings of the American Government, and people toward England, and hopes that no occurrence will happen to belie these statements. The London Times is characteristically sar-
